

ORBCOMM JOINS MSUA'S 2015 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Rochelle Park, NJ, May 21, 2015 –ORBCOMM Inc. (Nasdaq: ORBC), a leading global provider of Machine-to-Machine (M2M) solutions, today announced that John Stolte, ORBCOMM's Executive Vice President of Technology & Operations, has been elected to the Mobile Satellite Users Association's (MSUA) 2015 Board of Directors.

Mr. Stolte has more than 20 years of technology management experience in the aerospace and telecommunications industries. Prior to joining ORBCOMM in 2001, Mr. Stolte held a number of positions at Orbital Sciences Corporation, most recently as Program Director, where he was responsible for the design, manufacturing and launch of the ORBCOMM satellite constellation. From 1982 to 1990, Mr. Stolte worked for McDonnell Douglas in a number of positions, including at the Naval Research Laboratory, where he led the successful integration, test and launch of a multi-billion dollar defense satellite. He was also a board member for the Virginia Commercial Space Flight Authority from 2009 to 2012.

The Mobile Satellite Users Association is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting the interests of the users of Mobile Satellite Services worldwide. It serves the interests of users by fostering communications among and between users, suppliers of equipment and services, operators of satellite systems, and the various entities that may affect the future of the industry. In addition, MSUA reviews, analyzes and reports on, from a user's perspective, the activities, regulatory decisions and critical events of the Mobile Satellite Services industry. Finally, MSUA provides a means of assembling mobile users' views on system and service concerns and conveying this information to the appropriate authorities.
